

HARLEY MEMORIES

■ You're looking at big, bad Bill Roberts, proudly perched on his 1949 Model S125, a scooter he purchased from Howard Griffin, the local H-D dealer in Monroe, Louisiana. While many dudes of the day were ripping around on Big Twins, Bill dominated the pack aboard his decidedly cool, albeit a bit diminutive, Harley. His power came from within, and others feared his wrath. Or perhaps they didn't — it was a long time ago. Either way, this shot of Bill was sent in by his adoring nephew Benjy Russell. Among other things, Benjy credits his favorite uncle with being responsible for his lifelong passion for — you should be able to fill in the blank. On occasion, the pair still steal a ride together. Long may the two ramblers live.
