

HARLEY MEMORIES

■ At what age did you purchase your first Big Twin? Be honest. If you were Maurice Leblanc you could boast that you were a tender (or maybe not so tender) 14-year-old when you hit the H-D jackpot. We should all have been so lucky. Anyway, here's Maurice perched proud atop his Flathead. "I bought it in 1960," our guy says. "I was the envy of the block." (You don't say.) At a well-preserved 6I, Maurice might not be the envy of the block today, but at least he's still riding Milwaukee steel. Check him out on his latest scoot on page 126 in Snaps. "After many years without, I'm back riding. And I feel like a kid again." Take it easy, Maurice.
